"WOMAN'S MIND NOT INFERIOR."

Prof. Zueblin Says Old Ideas of Femininity Are Dying.

Prof. Charles Zueblin, editor of the Cen tury Magazine, opened the 1913-14 lecture season of the Harlem Socialist Forum yesterday afternoon with a lecture on "Man and Woman." The address dealt largely with the conditions existing to-day while woman is fighting for her rights to

BERNHARDT PROTEGE TO APPEAR

Betty Callish to Make Debut at Colonial Oct. 6.

Betty Callish, a protege of Sarah Bernhardt, will make her American debut at

LESS AMERICANS TO CANADA.

uch Immigration to Dominion Decreases More Than 19 Per Cent.

Plays and Players.

ANDREWS.—On Saturday, Sentember 27, 1913. Frances Lyon, widow of David Curran Andrews and beloved daughter of Elizabeth and the late Lewis Lyon. Funeral from her late residence, 210 West Seventy-ninth street, on Monday, Sep-tember 29, at 9:30 A. M.

West End avenue, at 1 o'clock P. Interment at Woodlawn.

beloved husband of Lide L. Wolcott

JONES.—September 25. Roland D. Jones.

M. D., aged 53 years.
Funeral services at his late residence,
Hotel Roland, 56 East Fifty-ninth street,
Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Interment

Tuesday at convenience of the family

Funeral services will be held at the Church of St. Vincent de Paul, Twenty-third street, west of Sixth avenue, New York city, Tuesday morning, September 20, at 10:30 o'clock. Philadelphia papers

Twenty-third street (Frank E. Campbell Building). Time of funeral here-after. Automobile cortege.

aged 12 years, at Bayport, L. I., on

OST .- Lina de Trobriand, daughter of Wal-

SIMON.—Entered into rest, on September

27, 1913, at Easton, Pa., Herman Simon

respectfully invited to attend the funeral services at his late home, 41 North Third street, Easton, Pa., Tuesday,

Third street, Easton, Pa., Tuesday, September 30, 1913, at 3 P. M. Friends who may desire to view the remains will be welcome at the home after 10

SMITH .- On Friday. September 26, 1912,

Anna Maud, beloved wife of Morton : Smith.

Funeral services on Monday, September 39, at 3:30 P. M., at her late residence, $71 Grand avenue, Brooklyn, Interment TORREY.-Bilen B., widow of William I. Torrey, suddenly, at Canandaigus, N. Y., on September 27.

Funeral services at her late residence, 103 Second place. Brooklyn, N. Y., Tuesday, September 20, at 2 P. M.

Mohonk, New York, on Friday, September 26, 1913, John V. Van Santvoord

Relatives and friends are invited to at tend the funeral services at the resi-dence of his cousins, 25 West Thirty-ninth street, New York, at 16 o'clock, Monday morning, 29th instant.

SANTVOORD .- Suddenly, at Lake

eptember 26, 1913.

MORRILL -John Lord, aged 55. Services

summer residence, Ocean avenue, New

London, Conn., on Monday, Sentember 29 at 2:30 P. M. Carriages will meet train leaving Grand Central depot at 10 and 10:02 o'clock.

ENTHAM -On

ime. Bernhardt.

the vote.

ENJOY GAY WEEK END AT HOT SPRINGS, VA.

Feature.

Feature.

Hot Springs, Va., Sept. 28.—Dinner parties at the Homestead Hotel at Fassefern Farm and the Daniel Boone log cabin, with the usual Saturday night dance and cabaret entertainment at the Homestead, made the week end a gay one at Hot Springs. More than a hundred visitors who have helped make the fall colony a brilliant one here in past years have arrived in the last two days.

Miss Katherine Fay gave a dinner at the Homestead last night, having among her guests Mrs. Seth Barton French, Miss Gladys Ingalls and Miss Julia Robbins, Magistrate Peter T. Barlow, H. C. Emmet, Jr., and W. Barton French.

Ir., and W. Barton French. pMrs. and Miss Alexander Entertain Mrs. H. M. Alexander and Miss Helen C. Alexander entertained at luncheon at Fassefern Farm to-day for Miss Susanne

Carroll, Miss Marian Leutz and William T. and H. F. Eldridge. Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Foote of Mor ristown also gave a luncheon at the farm for Mrs. Alexander H. Tiers, Gilbert Potts and Dr. Frederick N. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells motored over for luncheon with their party; Mr. and Mrs. Bingham rode over on horseback; Mr and Mrs. George S. Frank and Miss Alice Frank were there and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Morgan took luncheon at the farm-

Arrivals at the Homestead during the last two days include Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mrs. Frederick Edy, Mr. and Mrs. John Scott Browning, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Tanner, Miss Tanner, Miss H. Vingutz, James S. Abele, S. M. Merrihew, E. Robbins Walker, H. C. Haskins and M. G. Dexter of New York, Dr. and Mrs. Alexander W. Biddle and Miss Katherine Biddle of Philadelphia Mrs. Mrs. Biddle of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thaw of Pittsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Henry Appleton, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Cobb of Boston, Mr and Mrs. Odell Smith of Washington, Mrs. C. H. Hamble-don and Miss Crawford of Baltimore, who Meet of Fassefern Hunt Club.

The second annual race meet of the Passefern Hunt Club will take place on October 11 at Fassefern Farm. Interest promises to be keen, as there is to be no horse show this fall at White Sulphur Springs. This section of Virginia has many blooded saddle and racing horses, and the list of exhibitors, it is experted, will be large. will be large.

The programme, which will be run off on The programme, which will be run off on the new turf track, will include a point to point race of two miles, part of which will lie through the Jackson River, and hurdle and jumping races, besides the judging of saddle and harness horses. There will be twelve contests. Luncheon will be served at Exercise Form House and many dags. at Fassefern Farm House, and many drag and tallyho parties are being arranged among visitors at the Homestead.

0

Officers of the Hunt Club include Robert Waller, Archibald M. McCrae, M. E. Ingalls, Jr., and Clendenning J. Ryan of New York.
Race meet week, during which the annual and netted more than $75 for the Presbyteriar won the four length swimming race, while his brother, Ernest Loeb, took first prize in the juvenile swimming race.

DR. ANGELL GRAVELY ILL.

Ann Arbor's President Emeritus Has

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Sept. 28 .- Dr. James B. Angell, president emeritus of the University of Michigan and former Minister to Turkey, is very ill from an attack of heart disease late last night. For a time his condition was considered very grave.

To-night the physician in charge, Dr. James B. Breakey, says Dr. Angell is improving, though the danger point is not The crisis probably will not be reached for two or three days.

Dr. Angell despite his $4 years is remarkably well preserved and has been in good health until three weeks ago." that time his throat became inflamed and caused him so much trouble that he was considerably weakened.

THE SEAGOERS.

Arrivals by Three Liners From the British Isles and the Continent. By the North German Lloyd liner

ampton and Cherbourg:

Mrs. J. A. Maxwell.

Mr and, Mrs. Alfred Rezinald Allen.
Mrs. J. A. Bostwick.
Dr. George W. W.
Brewster.
Mrs. Wilter H. Bryant.
Dr. T. N. Carver.
Mr. and Mrs. William
P. Coleman.
Mr. and Mrs. F. C.
Coppicus.
Mrs. William Nelson
Cromwell.
Mr. and Mrs. C. W.
Dempster.
Judge John Clinton
Gray.
Alfred Hertz.
Mme. Anna Thalmann.

Gray.

Alfred Hertz.

Mme. Anna Thalmann.

Mrs. William E. Wil
merding.

Mrs. Gertrude T. Wil
Mrs. and Mrs. Rudolf

Tombo.

Mrs. Al Hay-By the Red Star liner Lapland, from

Antwerp and Dover:

Prof. E. F. Andrews.
Dr. and Mrs. L. F.
Barker.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter I.
McCoy.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert
Sedgwick.
Dr. and Mrs. C. H.
Sharp.
Dr. and Mrs. Barker.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H.
Sharp.
Mr. and Mrs. A. S.
Underhill.
Dickinson.
Mrs. John G. Eustis.
Dr. and Mrs. John G.
Jay.
Mrs. Daniel Lord.
From Glasgow, by the Anchor liner From Glasgow, by the Anchor liner

Ledy Ramesy.
The Rev. James B. William P. Haslett.
The Rev. Henry M.
Benbour.
Capt. J. L. Wilson.

Meeting of citizens' committee to dis-cuas Gaynor memorial, City Hall. Notification to fusion candidates at

COLUMBIA TO OPEN ARTS COURSE

Has Arranged Afternoon and Evening Lectures and Concerts.

More Than a Hundred Visitors

of Former Years Have Arrived.

Columbia University will open its new institute of arts and sciences on October 13, when President Nicholas Murray Butler will address the first meeting of the institute on "The Literature of Knowledge and the Literature of Power." The linstitute was organised last spring. Milton J. Davies, the director, has arranged a programme of more than 356 lecture registals and concerns approximately one

ANNUAL HUNT EVENT SOON

ANNUAL HUNT EVENT SOON

Point to Point Contest, Part in Jackson River, Will Be a programme of more than 356 lecture recitals and concerts, approximately one for every afternoon and evening from October to April.
Feature.

It is Columbia's plan to reach men and women whe are engaged in regular occupations, and persons of leisure who wish to use their late afternoons and evenings with vocational profit and pleasura without reference to obtaining academic credit. The lectures will be given singly or in a series of not more than six.

Magistrate Peter T. Barlow, H. C. Emmet,

CARDINAL GIBBONS ON CHURCH UNITY

He Regards Recognition of the Pope as the First Essential.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 28 .- Cardinal Gib bons has authorised the publication of the following statement of his views on church unity. It is the first time that the Cardinal or any other Roman Catholic in America of comparable distinction has discussed so freely this delicate sub

"You want to know about the union of all Christian Churches," said Cardinal Gibbons. "The reunion of the scattered branches of Christendom is a consum mation devoutly to be wished, and I would gladly sacrifice the remaining years of my ife in lending a helping hand toward this lessed result.

The First Requirement.

"The first essential requirement," h continued, "is the recognition of the sov-ereign pontiff as the successor of St. Peter, the divinely appointed head of Christendom. Every organisation, who-ther religious, civil or political, needs a head for its peace and security, indeed for its very existence.

"Once the proper position of the Pope is recognized, I do not believe that the is recognized, I do not believe that the other controverted doctrines are as formidable as is commonly imagined. When a proper explanation is given of the various dogmas upon which Christianity is founded, I am persuaded that the logical sense of the people will prompt them to sense of the people will prompt them to accept.

"And if the various Christian denominations of the United States were once united, working with one heart and one spirit, what a wonderful influence our Christian forces would exert in the civilization and the Christianizing of mankind:
What amazing things they would be denoted.

Walter, Archibald M. McCrae, M. E. Ingalis, Jr., and Clendenning J. Ryan of New York. Race meet week, during which the annual fall golf and tennis tournaments will be commenced, will mark the height of autumn gayeties at the Springs. There are arrivals daily from Northern resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald de Koven are expected soon to take their annual course of baths. Water sports in the Homestead swimming pool attracted a large crowd among visitors at the Homestead the middle of last week and netted more than $75 for the Presby-

Life After Death.

When asked his views in regard to the attempt of Sir Oliver Lodge to prove scientifically that after death there is life the Cardinal said that he "was not prepared to say whether, or how far, the continuity of life after death could be continuity of life after death could be proved by scientific investigations."

"Of such a vague proof," said the Cardinal, "I have no need. My faith in the hereafter, in the immortality of the soul, rests not on conjecture, but on a more solid foundation. It rests upon the infallible revelation of the Son of God, who has said, 'I am the resurrection and the life."

The Cardinal returns.

The Cardinal returned to the union of The Cardinal returned to the union of the Christian churches.

"The union of the churches," he said, "would bring about an era of civilization unknown in history. You and I may not live to see it; but it will come, I hope, and then the one undivided church will flourish and triumph."

WM. THAW ON LONG FLIGHT.

He Reaches New Haven in Newport to New York Trip. NEW HAVEN, Sept. 28 .- William Thaw and George MacGordon, who left New-port this morning in Thaw's flying boat with New York city as the final destination, arrived here this evening. They landed at Morris Cove. The trip was without mishap. They travelled at the rate of fifty miles an hour and descended only at Watch Hill. According to lans, they will finish the trip to-morrow. NEWPORT, Sept. 28 .- Thaw and Mac Gordon left here for New Haven this morning under favorable weather conditions. After launching the boat they rose about 100 feet and headed the craft toward Point Judith.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY, OCT. 9. Acting Governor Glynn Issues His

First Preclamation. ALBANT, Sept. 28.-Acting Governor Glynn has issued a proclamation designat-ing October 9 as fire prevention day and directing State Fire Marshal Thomas J. Ahearn to supervise the observance of the

The State Fire Marshal has already asked school authorities to set aside a portion of the day for the instruction of portion of the day for the instruction of the pupils in fire prevention by the exer-cise of care in the use of matches and other ignitable material. It is the first proclamation Mr. Glynn has issued since he assumed the office o acting Governor. BIG REWARD FOR RUMSEY GEMS.

Detectives, Unable to Find Thieves Offer $20,000 for Preperty. A reward of $20,000 has been offered by the Burns Detective Agency for the recovery of the jewelry stolen from the home of Mrs. C. C. Rumsey at Narragan-

Em New York To-day.

Ideeting of citizens' committee to dissist Gaynor memorial, City Hall.

Notification to fusion candidates at oper Union, 8 P. M.

Ideeting of arbitrators for Eastern rail
Ide and conductors and trainmen at tel Manhattan.

Wilson—"Europe may regard Mr. Bryan lightly, but I don't."

FORMAL OPENING OF

brier Hotel. Guests have been received for several days, but the formal opening did not occur until this evening, when Managing Director Fred Sterry gave a banquet to some fifty or sixty people, many of whom have come down from New York especially for this occasion he smiled as the "lid was lifted." Antebellum Southern belles and the dis-Henry Clay and his associates made White Sulphur Springs their yearly endesvous would gasp with astonishment could they return to-day and see the primitive comforts to which they were

To those who are familiar with the atractions of European spas and resorts from Bremen, Southampton and Cherhere is a striking similarity between White Sulphur Springs and Carlsbad. The drive from White Sulphur to Lewisis quite as picturesque as the us one from Carlsbad to Marienbad. Nor does the similarity end there. White Sulphur Springs now has perhaps the most complete bath plant in America. Dr. George D. Kahlo, formerly medical director at French Lick Springs, occupies a similar position here. Under his supervision you can have anything from the ordinary well known turkish bath of the clubman to the extremely unpleasant looking but highly curative mud bath of Bavaria. Indeed, in order to make the White Sulphur Springs absolutely complete, several tons of Carisbad mud was imported. Now Greenbrier county of West Vir-

Now Greenbrier county of west virginia has some mud of its own. It's very can music loving public would be degood mud. The bath attendant who squirts sulphur water on a patron will make oath as an American citizen, that the Greenbrier Valley mud is far better pression of "Salome," and Mr. Strauss pression of "Salome," and Mr. Strauss squirts sulphur water on a patron will make oath as an American citizen, that the Greenbrier Valley mud is far better han the Bavarian mud. Both kinds are to be had, both equally black and unpleasant. Unless you are an expert you won't know the difference. The water squirter does, but it's rumored that the will ever adopt, except by accident. The new Greenbrier is to be run on the European plan. You pay for your room and then you pay what you please for Speaking of old times again, Mr. Sterry has twelve employees around the new Greenbrier Hotel who are all veterans of the Confederate army. The scarred, white mustached old gentleman with the gray slouch hat who parades back and forth n the porte cochere is Mr. Grubb, formerly a bold rider with Mosby's guer-illas, and the tall lean old gentleman, also with a gray slouch hat, who mounts muard in front of the bath building, is mpson, who came out alive from that famous charge that Pickett made at

WHITMAN BABY NOT NAMED.

Mother, Before Marriage, Was Jennie Crocker of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm D. Whitman of 876 Fifth avenue have not yet decided upon a name for their son, who arrived a week ago. The baby was getting along Mrs. Whitman was Jennie Crocker of California. Her marriage to Mr. Whitman took place in San Francisco in July for the first time in Boston. He says a year ago. Immediately afterward the that this is an off year in all sorts of couple came here to live. He will go at once to

TOURISTS BY AUTOMOBILE

THE NEW GREENBRIER

Lenox, Mass, Sept. 28.—Motor arrivals at the Hotel Elton to-day invoked, died on Saturday evening in Work, died on Saturday evening in Work, died on Saturday evening in the Mountainside Hospital, Monticiair, N. J., Wen Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gondron, New York, S. Warner, Jr. George E. Watner, Jr. George E. Watner

but Patriots May Prefer

the Home Product.

by automobile at the Equinox House included the following from New York city to-day:

C. D. Hilles, Pierce; Mr. and Mrs. G. A.

J. Major, Winton; Dr. and Mrs. R. H.

Halsey, Miss Joralemon, Packard; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ward, Miss H. M. Soule and Mrs. P. P. Wagoner, W. A. Roy, Winton; Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Ward, Miss H. M. Soule and Mrs. P. P. Wagoner, W. A. Roy, Winton; Mrs. Arthur Cheney, Floyd R. Stamp, Overland; Mr. and Mrs. L. H.

Stamp, Overland; Mr. and Mrs. L. H.

Babcock, Pierce.

Thomas.

Bretton Woods, N. H., Sept. 28.—
Among the arrivals at the Mount Washington from New York to-day by automobile were:

Mrs. L. A. Ward, Miss H. M. Soule and Mrs. L. G. Littlejohn in a Pierce-Arrow; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Appleton in a Locomobile; Mr. and Mrs. James Newton Gunn in a Peerless; Dr. and Mrs. Alfred

Ex-President of Connecticut Medical Society Dies.

WATERBURY, Conn., Sept. 28 .- Automo- F. Hess in a Stevens

CONDUCTORS AND MUSIC

Works to Open Season Here.

The steamship George Washington,

bourg, docked last night, an extra force of customs men looking out for her 482 saloon and 442 second cabin passengers.

retary to Gatti-Casazza, and Mrs. Coppicus and Cornella Ryder Possart,

Mr. Hertz said that Richard Strauss's opera "Die osen Kavalier" is the great-est creation of its kind since "Die Meister-singer" and that he was sure the Amerionce for a phonographic company that wanted a record of "Parsifal." The or-very successful and was fine, but not fitted for production at the Metropolitan. Mr. Coppicus said that he had seen Charpentier's "Jullen" in Paris, and that on at the Metropolitan with the same resplendent accessories as "Parsifal," as it is an opera that must be treated in that way to be effective. He said it would give Caruso a fine opportunity all the way through to show the quality of his voice, and Farrar also would have a splendid chance to display her genius. Charpentier, he said, was coming over and would attend the final dress re-hearsal. It will be his first visit to America.

Mrs. Coppicus is still lamenting the loss of her two cases of jewelry, valued at about $5,000, that were taken from a handbag while she was absent a few minutes from her room in a hotel in Milan. She fears that she never will get them hack.

Dr. Karl Muck brings back a new symphony by Nornen, which will be played for the first time in Boston. He says

Boston to prepare for opening on Oc-Mr. Stowoski has several novelties, including a symphony by Ra-baud and a composition by Ernest Schell-STARS ARRIVE HAPPY the American, entitled "Legende ymphonique." Prof. Rudolf Tombo of Columbia University has been conferring and swapping sentiments with the German playwrights. inguished statesmen of olden days when Orchestra Leaders Bring New He has arranged to have Ludwig Fulda come here on a lecture tour and superin-tend the production of some of his plays. Otto Ernst will be here next year.

HALL CAINE'S NOVEL BARRED. largest of the North German Lloyd fleet. And Its Publisher Is Vice-President of Objecting Library. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28 .- Hall Caine's latest novel, "The Woman Thou Gavest City. Among her notable voyagers was an ar- Me," has been barred from the shelves ray of musical and operatic folk, in- of the Mercantile Library of this city, W. cluding Alfred Hertz, conductor of the J. Campbell, chairman of the book com-Metropolitan Opera; Dr. Karl Muck, the mittee, declares that the book was barred Boston Symphony conductor; Leopold because it is "immoral, trashy and poorly Stowowski, conductor of the Philadelphia written." He says it won't get into the Symphony; Loomis H. Taylor, assistant stage director of the Metropolitan, backfrom his honeymoon; F. C. Coppicus, sectors to Garti-Consum and the stage of governors have been decided by the stage of th paring to take the question before the mand that Caine's book be given a place on the shelves. J. B. Lippincott, of the publishing house which brought out the novel in this country, is vice-president of the Mercantile Library. The novel is still on the shelves of all the other large libraries of the city.

UNVEIL BLAUSTEIN MONUMENT. pression of "Salome," and Mr. Strauss was very willing to have "Die Rosen Kavalier" put on at the Metropolitan. "Those who supposed that 'Salome' was characteristic of Strauss will be agreeably seven Hundred at Ceremony in Honor of Late Jewish Scholar.

lewish scholar and educator, who died

people. To them he was a kind teacher, a guiding spirit, a consoling friend." Several hundred people attended the ceremony at the grave, which was con-ducted by three rabbis.

Ethel Barrymore (Mrs. Russell Colt), During his 1910 trip to America h who recently became the mother of anwho recently became the mother of another son, will begin rehearsals to-day for "Tante," a new comedy, by C. Haddon Chambers. The cast will include Charles Cherry, E. Henry Edwards, Haidee Wright and Mabel Archdale. The comedy will be seen here at the Empire Theatre immediately following the engagement of John Drew in "The Will" and "The Tyranny of Tears."

During his coming engagement at Walwas the guest of a studio reception given by Mr. and Mrs. John da Costa at 130 West Fifty-seventh street, New York.

Michael M. Le Brun, a retired architect,

Society Dies. Norwich, Conn., Sept. 28.—Dr. Leonard B. Almy died at his residence here last night at the age of 62 after an illness of several months. and was at one time president of the Connecticut Medical Society. Dr. Almy was a member of the Society of Colonial Wars, the Society of Foreign Wars and the Sons of the American Revolution was in charge of the division hospitals at Camp Alger, Va., and Camp Wyckoff Montauk Point, during the Spanish-Amer

She was in her sixty-first year and is survived by one son

FIFTY YEARS ON THE STAGE. Ada Boshell, Playing in "The Fight," Guest of Margaret Wycherly.

outside Peekskill. Miss Boshell made her first appearance on the stage at the age of 8 in Nile's Bag." a farce that opened at Tweedle Hall in Albany on September 30, 1863. Toward the end of the civil war the company made a Southern tour. Dur ing the reconstruction Miss Boshell joined which Minnie Maddern, now Mrs. Har rison Grey Fiske, was a child actress.

During her fifty years stage cares A monument was unveiled yesterday in Miss Boshell has played in over thirty took companies. Including her part in disappointed when they see this new opera, disappointed when they see this new opera, which is full of vital cheerfulness."

The Washington Cemetery, Brooklyn, over the Washington Cemetery, Brooklyn, over the Stock companies. Including her part the grave of Dr. David Blaustein, the "The Fight" she has played 547 roles. "We are wont to believe that drama-tists are unusually prolific nowadays," she said last night, "but they are not wanted a record of "Parsifal." The orchestra was the Philharmonic of Berlin, and the record was excellent. Mr. Hertz said that Strauss's "Arladne" had been very successful and was fine, but not fitted for production at the Metropolities.

"Devoted his life to his wandering"

"Devoted his life to his wandering"

"Devoted his life to his wandering"

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 28.—The temperature at noon here to-day was 64.

FREE PUBLIC EXHIBITION SEVRES CHINA AND PORCELAINS FOR ONE DAY ONLY Tuesday, September 30, from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. ON BOARD THE NEW QUADRUPLE SCREW FRENCH LINE S. S. "FRANCE" At Pier S7. North River, foot of West Pifteenth Street,

THE PUBLIC IS CORDIALLY INVITED

SIR ALFRED EAST IS DEAD IN LONDON

President of Royal Society of British Artists and Well

VISITED AMERICA TWICE

The said that the old ideas about feminine characteristics should be abolished as the present day woman has outgrown all those old fashioned suppositions that her intellect is inferior to that of man.

"If we must change human nature to better these conditions," said Prof. Zueblin, "then it is our privilege to change human nature."

Pittsburg and Chicago Galleries.

These lectures will continue all through the winter, the object being to give the citisens of Harlem an opportunity to study the vital politico-economic problems of the day. Special Cable Desparch to THE SEX. LONDON, Sept. 28.—Sir Alfred East, president of the Royal Society of British Artists, died to-day. He was born at Kettering December 18, 1849.

Sir Alfred East, A. R. A., R. E., L.L. D., hardt, will make her American debut at the Colonial Theatre on October 5. She will sing, talk songs and play the violin. She is a young Dutch girl, who first won fame by her violin playing at the Court of Queen Wilhelmina. Mme. Bernhardt later heard her sing and had her go to Paris to have her voice trained.

Miss Callish came here with letters from Caruso, Mme. Melba, Jean de Resske, Mrs. Patrick Campbell, Arthur Nikisch, Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree and Mme. Bernhardt. received his éducation at the Government chool of Art at Glasgow and afterward at the Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris. He was a cavaller of the Order of the Crown of Italy, an associate of the Societe Nationale des Beaux Arts, Paris; honorary associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects, honorary member of the Meiji Bijutsu Kai of Japan, of the Societe Royal d'Aquarellistes of Belgium and the royal academies of London, Paris, Munich and

Sir Alfred East's works are to be found in many galleries all over the world His "Returning from Church" is in the Carnegie Art Gallery at Pittsburg, Pa.: "A Passing Storm" in the Luxembourg at Paris, "A Haunt of Ancient Peace" in the National Gallery of Hungary, "London at Night" in the Milan National Gallery, "The Morning Moon" in the Art Institute at Chicago, "The White Carnival" in the Brussels National Gallery and numerous works in various municipal galleries in England.

In 1908 Sir Alfred published a book on "The Art of Landscape Painting in Oil Colof."

Sir Alfred visited this country for the last time in 1912, when he came here for the purpose of attending the commencement at Yale University.

In. January 1910, while visiting the Art Institute in Chicago he created a stir in the art world by declaring that "A Passing Storm" in the Luxembourg at mencement at Yale University.

In. January 1910, while visiting the Art Institute in Chicago he created a stir in the art world by declaring that Americans were the most courageous and the most cowardly people on earth in judging art, being prone to accept the opinions of others.

Ethel Bar

ARCHITECT LE BRUN DEAD.

Designed Metropolitan Life Building and Other Structures Here.

Will" and "The Tyranny of Tears."
During his coming engagement at Wallack's Theatre Cyril Maude will appear in "Tantalizing Tommy," a comedy, by Paul Gavault and Michael Morton. Mr. Maude's daughter, Miss Margery, will play the part of Tommy. The comedy has been seen here as a musical comedy. Lee and J. Shubert will entertain at the Shubert Theatre in West Forty-fourth street this afternoon in honer of Sir Johnston and Lady Forbes-Robertson. The guests will be shown about Michael M. Le Brun. a retired architect, who designed the Metropolitan Life Building and other structures in New York, died on Saturday evening in the Mountainside Hospital, Montelair, N. J., after an operation for stomach trouble. He was 56 years old.

When Mr. Le Brun retired three or four years ago he was one of the most prominent architects in New York. After he retired he took great interest in public affairs in New Jersey and particularly in Lucille Bentham, wife of M. S. Bentham Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, September 36, at the Fourth Presby-terian Church, Ninety-first street and DIMOCK.—Suddenly, on Friday, Septem-ber 26, Otis K. Dimock of New York, Dr. Almy is survived by two daughters Mrs. W. E. Allen of Mystic and Mrs. Don-ald Chappell of New London.

Mrs. Ellen O'Neil.

Mrs. Ellen O'Nell, a lifelong worker for the hospitals and other charity institutions of Hudson county, died suddenly Saturday night at her home, 146 Vroom street, Jersey LE BRUN.—At Montclafr, N. J., September 27, 1913, Michel Moracin Le Brun, son of the late Napoleon and Adele Le Ada Boshell, who plays the part of the Mother in "The Fight" at the Hudsor Theatre, will celebrate her fiftieth year on the stage to-night. Yesterday she was Temperature at Atlantic City.

FRANK E CAMPBELL 23 5 THE MOTOR HEARSES HIRE

UNDERTARES.

CREMATORIES.

INTELLIGENT, scientific and sanitary method.
UNITED STATES CREMATION COMPANY.
Middle Villege, L. I. Pamphies from Phone 170 Williamsburg.